YYAS is looking for driven individuals who have a passion for teaching, mentoring, and inspiring talented African high school students and are willing to work collaboratively to create a successful and memorable program. Regional Associates are expected to take on a wide array of responsibilities to help facilitate the program, including both academic and residential life duties.

Why Be a YYAS Regional Associate?

YYAS provides a unique opportunity for Regional Associates to develop their own curriculum, gain valuable classroom experience with diverse students from around the African continent, and mentor students in a variety of different contexts.

Major YYAS programming elements are listed below:

- Lectures: Lectures take place with Yale faculty members as well as local scholars and practitioners. Lectures are intended to expose students to a wide array of new ideas and perspectives and exciting new research, as well as to challenge them with first-year university level material. Past topics have included public health, financial markets in Africa, African languages in a globalizing world, and ethics and civic engagement.

Regional Associates are required to attend the lectures that correspond with discussion sessions that they are leading.

- Discussion Sections: Following the lectures, associates lead smaller breakout sessions (typically ~15 students) to further explore topics related to the content of the lectures. Regional Associates facilitate the conversations, but students are expected to take the lead and voice their opinions, formulate thoughtful questions and responses, debate varied perspectives, and consider possible follow-up experiments.
- Seminars: Seminars are interdisciplinary 90-minute standalone classes (typically 8-12 students each) that are designed and taught by associates to help students develop critical thinking skills by exploring a variety of relevant topics. Regional Associates propose seminars based on topics of their choice, and leadership staff select and schedule the seminars that will be taught in YYAS. Students give their preferences on a wide range of seminars available each day and will be assigned to seminars accordingly. To promote thoughtful discussion, seminars will have assigned readings that are made available to YYAS participants prior to their arrival to the program.
- Workshops: Over the course of the program, all associates supervise and mentor approximately 6-8 students on various components of applying to university. Workshop groups also provide a unique opportunity for students to meet and bond with a small group. Workshop groups engage in icebreakers, daily reflections, and otherwise serve as safe and supportive environments for students to share more about themselves and learn more about each other.
- Talent Show: At the end of the session, YYAS hosts a talent show featuring performances by student participants. This is an excellent way for students to showcase their talents and cultural heritage.

Program Responsibilities

YYAS is an incredibly busy one-month experience and requires a full-time commitment from staff. Candidates who are interested in both teaching and mentoring students in the classroom, as well as taking on a role similar to a camp counselor, are strongly encouraged to apply. We strive to create an inclusive community based on collaboration and teamwork. All instructional staff members, including Regional Associates, are the face of YYAS, and as such are held to the highest standards of responsibility and integrity. YYAS Regional Associates are expected to be an active presence in each location and should react to any emergent situations to ensure student comfort and security. Given the nature of our program, other responsibilities may arise periodically and will be delegated as necessary. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

Curriculum Development

Regional Associates are responsible for developing a unique seminar that will be taught in all three locations of the program. Beginning in the early spring, associates will submit a proposal of their intended seminars. Upon approval of their plans, they are responsible for developing assigned readings, discussion questions, and all other aspects of their seminars throughout the Spring (April and May 2020) semester.

Summer Teaching

During YYAS, Regional Associates will teach one seminar and lead discussion sections. In addition to these teaching responsibilities, associates will run workshops and assist instructors to facilitate team building activities for participants.

Residential Life and Other Duties

During the program, all associates will participate in residential life activities, as well as provide operational support to the leadership team. Given the nature of the program, it is possible that they may be asked for additional help should the need for it arise.

Associates are also encouraged to:

- Facilitate conversations with students over lunch or dinner (called special meals) on topics of their choice
- Lead optional student activities during free time and participate in the Talent Show!

Employment Timeline

The YYAS Regional Associate hiring and training process is outlined below.

1) December 2019 – February 2020: Application Submissions, Interviews, and Hiring Decisions

The YYAS Regional Associate Employment Application is due no later than Friday, 31 January 2020. Application review and interviews will be done from February 3rd–21st, 2020. Final hiring decisions for YYAS 2020 associates are expected to be released between February 25th–28th, 2020.

2) March to April 2020: Online Orientation, Training, and Curriculum Development

All associates hired for YYAS 2020 will be required to participate in bi-weekly online training meetings throughout the Spring semester (March–April 2020). This training will provide an overview of how the 2020 sessions will run and will focus on seminar curriculum development.

Associates will also receive online training on teaching high school students, leading university guidance workshops, and designing hands-on seminars that are engaging for students. Prior to the arrival of participants, an in-person orientation will be held in the first host country. YYAS will provide modest financial support for seminar materials. The key to successful seminars is substantial planning in the months preceding the session. Associates will submit initial seminar proposals with four different ideas. They will receive feedback on the proposals from the YYAS leadership team who will select and approve seminars, considering the balance of all seminar proposals. Each associate will then submit a final seminar proposal and upload seminar information and reading material for distribution to the participants.

Spring training will also be an opportunity for all associates to get to know each other and the YYAS leadership team!

3) July to August 2020: Travel and programming

Detailed information regarding academic and residential life responsibilities for instructional staff will be made available closer to the start of the program.

Compensation and Benefits

- A competitive summer stipend upon completion of YYAS
- Fully-funded 4-week trip to Ghana, Kenya and Zimbabwe including visa fees, vaccinations, airfare, meals, and accommodations (any incidental expenses that associates elect to incur will be out of pocket).
